“Fraternal Order of Police George Webster Memorial State Scholarship”

Scholarship Rules and Regulations

1. The “Fraternal Order of Police George Webster Memorial State Scholarship” will be awarded to one qualified recipient per calendar year and will be good for 4 years. It is intended to assist the recipient by providing a scholarship award of $2,000.00 annually, which will be made payable to both the recipient and the accredited college, university or other educational institution of the scholarship recipient’s choice, recognized by the U.S. Department of Accreditation.

2. The recipient must be the dependent son or daughter, grandson or granddaughter of a Fraternal Order of Police member in good standing, at the time of application, of a subordinate lodge of the Florida State Lodge, Fraternal Order of Police.

3. The scholarship will be awarded on the basis of scholastic achievement, academic load and community involvement and prior work history if applicable.

4. The Scholarship Committee shall be composed of seven members; the chairperson and a representative from each of the remaining six (6) districts. The Scholarship Committee will meet and review all applications at the February Board Meeting of the Florida State Lodge and additional time will be allotted at the Law Enforcement Officer’s Memorial in Tallahassee in May. An alternate winner may also be chosen from the remaining applicants and will receive a non-renewable scholarship of $2,000.00. The committee shall disperse an additional non-renewable $1,000.00 to two (2) qualifying applicants. The decisions of the Scholarship Committee are final.

5. The applicant shall submit their application to the respective sponsor’s local lodge president or if unavailable, another member of the local lodge board for certification of the application. The local lodge will have all completed, notarized applications mailed to the Florida State Lodge in Tallahassee, postmarked by February 1, 2011 to the attention of the State Scholarship Committee. The Scholarship committee will not accept any applications postmarked after February 1, 2011.

6. The scholarship winner and alternate winners will receive notice of the scholarship award by mail from the State F.O.P. Scholarship Chairperson. All recipients will receive their scholarships at the June Conference, location to be announced each year. The winner should fully understand that in accepting this scholarship:

- A. The applicant meets all requirements to enter and attend the college or university and
- B. An overall 2.50 grade point average must be maintained during each semester
- C. The applicant must apply and be accepted or already be enrolled in an accredited college or university.
- D. Each year, a renewal application must be completed and submitted, along with a current certified transcript, in order for the scholarship to continue by June 1st postmark.

7. Only those applications marked “rev 11/2010” will be accepted.

8. Any deviation from the applicant's original application is subject to review by the scholarship committee. The Committee decision will be final.

9. These rules are subject to revision each year, as provided by the Florida State Lodge Constitution and By-Laws.
